Donald Patrick participates in “Ignite Your Practice” Webinar

Atlanta, GA (May 29, 2009) – Donald Patrick, Managing Director of Integrated Financial Group an Atlanta-based elite consortium of independent financial planners, was one of the distinguished panelists along with three other nationally recognized industry experts Ron Carson, Scott Hanson and Pat McClain for a Webinar presented to financial advisors throughout the U.S. titled “Ignite Your Practice” on Thursday, May 28, 2009.

The 90-minute webinar provided each panelist the opportunity to share their best ideas for igniting their business over the next 12 months. Don’s key point, 2009 should be a career year for these advisors because so many need their help. They have the skills and experience so desperately needed by so many people as a result of the recent financial devastation. Don stated, “It is not only their destiny to help, but is an obligation to deliver advice, solutions, perspective and potential peace of mind to the millions impacted by this financial crisis.”

With over 1000 participants, Don Patrick stated, “All participants should have a better understanding of how they can take their business to make 2009 their career year. All the skills we have acquired have been for this moment.”

About Don Patrick and Integrated Financial Group

Don Patrick brings over two decades of experience advising individuals, professionals and businesses in a wide range of financial matters, from risk management, investments, and taxes, to general business consulting. He specializes in helping pre-retirees and retirees with the myriad of financial issues they face at this most important phase of their financial lives. The primary focus is to provide an income that they cannot outlive, improve returns, protect their principal and reduce taxes.

He has been a consultant for the Small Business Administration, and was previously regional Vice President of Smathers & Company, a California based investment management firm, Conway Financial Advisors, in Boca Raton, Florida. While at Conway, he was a financial advisor; he headed their investment research department; was Vice President of the advisory firm; and established/headed the firm's investment division. For an additional twelve years, he was Director of Financial Planning and Investments at Porraro and Associates in Atlanta, Georgia.

Currently, Don is Managing Director of Integrated Financial Group an elite consortium of independent financial planners.

Don earned his MBA from the University of Southern California where he was graduated with honors. His major studies were small business development and finance. Undergraduate studies were completed at Loyola University Los Angeles in the areas of finance and economics. He served as a pilot in the U.S. Air Force, graduating first in his class. He is the author of "Keep Your Nest Egg From Cracking...What you Need To Know." He was listed in the Who's Who Top 100 in Finance by the Atlanta Business Chronicle and was selected as a Top Ten Branch Manager in the nation by On Wall Street.

An aeronaut who's been flying since age 16, Don has logged 11,000 hours mostly in jets for the Air Force and Eastern Airlines. He volunteers for and is an ardent supporter of Angel Flight, a non-profit organization of volunteer pilots who transport individuals with medical and financial needs.
