Atlanta Firm Named Among Securities America Top Three Branch Offices

OMAHA, April 7, 2009 – Integrated Financial Group of Atlanta, Ga., has been named to Securities America’s Circle of Stars. The annual award honors Securities America’s Top 3 branch offices.

“The past year has been particularly challenging for financial services firms,” said Steve McWhorter, Securities America chief executive officer. “Integrated Financial Group has excelled despite that environment through hard work, strong ethics and a focus on providing the highest level of service to its clients.”

Integrated Financial Group (IFG), a consortium financial professionals who primarily serve pre-retirees and retirees using a proven financial planning and wealth management platform, has offices in Georgia, North Carolina, Louisiana, Florida, Tennessee, New York, Missouri, Kansas and Texas and about $1 billion in assets under advisement. Its 45 advisors, all registered representatives of Securities America, have credentials including CFP®, CPA, MBA, MFS and average 15 years in the business.
