David Dew joins Diversified Wealth Management

Local Financial Services Firm is Growing

Atlanta, GA (June 16, 2008) – David Dew recently joined Diversified Wealth Management as Director of Operations.

David, who graduated from the University of West Georgia, has broad finance and consulting experience. Prior to Diversified Wealth Management, Securities America, he was a consultant with Ceto and Associates, a consulting firm that specialized in conducting bank-wide studies to identify and quantify systemic gaps in pricing, assessment and collection of service and transactional fees. His consulting initiatives were designed and implemented to quickly enhance profitability through creating new sources of non-interest income and modifying existing pricing methodologies. Prior to that, David served in retail banking with Wells Fargo as a Senior Manager in consumer lending.

In addition to working on completion of his MBA, David currently oversees the administrative processes at the firm, as well as management of all the back-end operations and systems. According to David, “I’m so excited to be a part of the Diversified Wealth Management team. I look forward to my evolving role, completing my licensures and expanding my duties to include working with all of Teresa’s wonderful clients.”
