Integrated Financial Group Holds The 2008 Consortium Retreat

Financial Advisors Discuss “Taking It To The Next Level”

Atlanta, GA (January 31, 2008) – Over 50 members of a consortium of financial advisors converged upon the Sheraton Atlanta Perimeter North Hotel for a retreat held January 24th thru 26th. The Integrated Financial Group’s 2008 Consortium Retreat was considered the highlight of the year among many attendees.

Presentations and break-out sessions focused on this year’s theme, “Taking It to the Next Level”. Throughout the two-day event, advisors shared positive business practices and successes, as well as challenges.

“The consensus among participants at the close of the retreat was that this opportunity for sharing with fellow professionals was necessary to ensure a secure and progressive organization well into the future,” says Don Patrick, Managing Director of the Integrated Financial Group. “The retreat unified advisors in their focus to pool intellectual brainpower in order to deliver the most practical, beneficial and effective financial solutions for their clients,”
